FRIENDS SCHOOL

Days of "Merrie England" Are Re- Monthy Periodical Distributed by produced in a Spring Observance.

In a matural spring setting among green trees. Robin Hood and his metry men welcomed the conting of spring yesterday at the May festival of the Friends School. In a natural amphitheater in a secluded part of the grounds of the school's Country Club, in Wisconsin Avenue, the spring observances of Old Singland were reproduced in dames and song.

The setting was the edge of Sherwood from the Herald publishes mostly and the section of the Welfth company of the section of the section of the twelfth company of the section of the se Singland were reproduced in dance and song.

The seiting was the edge of Sherwood forest, at the end of the twelfth century. Little children first appear, and to the accompaniment of ancient music gather the flowers for the May Day fets. A nature dance, beautifully executed by Minnie Saxton, represented the Jayoushess of the season. Alemost 30 children were in this procession, among them Robin Hood. Friar Tuck, Maid Marian, the Spirit of Spring, attendants of the Queen, peanatts, water nympts, and fry spriess. Ruth Ruberts, the Queen of May, then tooks her sast under a sprin of deawood. Around her as attendants Lens Rames, Katharine Ladd, Candace Howard, Frances Sidwell, Midred Miller, Generiew Clark, Marie Sims, Sytvis, Carier, Mary Anjin, and Hillia Janson. The prasant children then danced before the Queen in beautifull, wearing figures, which were always included in dances, to that the crops would prosper, which were always included in dances, to that the crops would prosper.

May Open Bardanelles.
Constantinople. May 2.—The pilot boat Zeminioar struck a mins in the Dardanelles early to-day and was sank with a less of eleven men. One man was saved.
The sinking of the pilot beat, which is the second catastrophe of the kind within a week, will probably cause the opening up of the Dardanelles.
It was reported to-day that the Turkish califies had decided to re-open the strait
at the urgent request of other powers.
More than 30 ships are bottled up by the closting of the strait and numerous complaints have been made by shipping companies to their various countries.
